

Ash Wednesday - Service of the Sacrament

(continuing from pg 5 of your bulletin)

P Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the season of Lent and forty days until Easter. During Lent, we especially consider the depth and depravity of our own sinfulness which drove our Lord to the cross in order to redeem us. As we meditate on the dark stain of our sin, it is fitting that we should seek the remission of sins offered here in Jesus true body and blood. Sorrow and repentance over sin means nothing unless it turns us to the cross of Christ, where He cleansed us from that stain of sin and clothed us in His perfect righteousness.
